Committee Reports

Capacity Building Committee – Liliana Ayala-Silva

- Liliana reported on 09/15 @ 5:00 PM at Alder and Co, there will be a Capacity Building activity to film. All are invited to participate.

Financial Committee – Dawn Wright

- Dawn reports approval of 250.00 for True North nutritional support, and 610.00 for Guadalupe/PCVU & Fireland Community Block Party 10/15 @ Cheney Park in South Bend.

Youth Arm Committee – Lyndsey Owen

- Lyndsey and Paul reported on the success of the Color Run. Discussion of revisiting Red Ribbon Week, Peer Helpers and how we can support local youth in these activities, specifically the last week of October. South Bend School staff has verbally requested assistance to re-introduce Peer Helpers and the Retreat this year. Discussion of putting together a committee to assist.

Substance Use Prevention Committee – Bethany Barnard

- Oct 29 is Drug Takeback night. Support is requested and at this time it is unknown if it will be in person or drive through. In South County, Wellspring and Basics Northwest are the sponsors.
- Substance Use Prevention Committee. Discussion of bottle tagging for this fiscal year, and making this a priority for next fiscal year.

Other Business

- Nicole reports from Willapa Valley School on “You OK” events. Nicole reports she is also working in Raymond and South Bend as True North trains their new hire.
- Sandra Moser /Kiwanis reports that the South Bend Key Club assisted with the Pacific County Fair. Kiwanis handed out books with the Timberland Library, and has had positive community input about Kiwanis camps next summer.
- Jennifer Mitchel/Crisis support reports on Domestic Violence Awareness Month
- Discussion of GLSEN participation, as it appears there will be in person events. Other events for local and State chapters are encouraged. Lyndsey reports any participation can be Tri-District with coordination of bus transportation. TAC would like to sponsor a table at the schools for National Coming Out Day on 10/11. Bethany will reach out to the Raymond Superintendent. As National Hispanic Awareness Month is October, there was discussion of adding this to school outreach.
- General and Board TAC meetings moved to Monday, 10/3 in support of Indigenous Peoples Day 10/10.

Meeting Adjourned: 4:30 PM

Next Meeting: Monday, October 3rd 2022 – 2:00 pm
